

SAP PP & MM Consultant

Job Location

Penang, Malaysia

Employment type

Contract

Roles & Responsibilities

- Configure SAP and business systems across multiple functional areas
- Define business processes, improvements, system scope, and business objectives
- Nice to have hands-on experience with one or more of the following SAP Technologies:
 - o SAP Manufacturing Execution System (MES)
 - o SAP Manufacturing Integration and Intelligence (MII)

- Assist user community in analyzing and defining needs
- Create detailed specifications from which programs will be written
- Develop business cases for large-scale system and process solutions and presents to executive management; works with end users to define and configure new application modules.
- Manage own workload, and may direct the work of other analysts and coworkers
- Independently learn about new or upcoming functionality available in relevant area to proactively provide suggestions or solutions to the business
- Apply project management best practices to all projects; responsible for mid-sized projects utilizing 1 or more resources
- Reengineer and lead others in the reengineering of cumbersome processes to create efficient, accurate and well-documented solutions
- Provide significant input into defining the strategic direction of a functional area.

Since the requirement urgent candidate who can join in January will be preferred.